

York County Supervisors Seek Applicants For York County Historical Committee

Yorktown, March 7– The York County Board of Supervisors seeks applications for future vacancies on the York County Historical Committee from County citizens interested in serving on the Committee, which serves as an advisory body to the York County Board of Supervisors on matters of a historical nature dealing with the County and the Town of York. The Committee meets the third Thursday of each month.

York County citizens interested in applying for appointment to the York County Historical Committee may obtain an application at the County Administrator's Office at 224 Ballard Street in Yorktown, or by calling 890-3320. Applications may also be obtained and filed by using the County website. Enter the County's website at www.yorkcounty.gov, click on On-Line Services, click on Board Bank Application and click on Continue to Board/Commission Application Form.

###